Expected Applicant/Petitioner

Caveat Petition lodged under Section 148-A of C.P.C

1. The address of the caveator for service of notice within the jurisdiction of this Honourable court is as shown above in the cause title.

The address of the expected applicants for service of notice is as shown above in cause title.

2. The caveator is the respondent in Revision/F.A No.XX/2014 on the file of Karnataka District/State Consumer Dispute Redressal Forum. The Honourable District/State consumer Dispute Redressal Forum dismissed the petition II vide judgement passed on .././2014.

3. Now it is reliably learnt that the respondents are taking hectic steps to approach this Honourable State/ national Consumer Dispute Redressal Commission against the dismissal of the revision and apply for interim relief against the caveator. It is submitted that the intention of the respondents is only to cause hardship and trouble to the caveators. If any interim relief is granted to the respondents without hearing the caveator in advance, it would cause irreparable injury and hardships to the caveator.

4. Let nothing be done in the above matter without notice to the caveator in advance.

5. A copy of the caveat is sent to the respondents by registered post with acknowledgement due and the postal receipt is produced herewith.
